MIDPOINT vs. POST-INTENSIVE — SIDE-BY-SIDE COMPARISON

Direct comparison of the same themes across the two surveys. Each finding is grounded in named responses.

Theme	Midpoint (10 respondents)	NYU + End survey (8–11 respondents)
Peer connection	WEAK. 5 of 10 connected with 1 fellow; 3 tried with no response (Erica, Esther, Sammie). Nachi connected with 0. Bethany reached highest at 4.	RESOLVED. All 8 NYU respondents cited in-person bonding as a highlight. Nachi, Nina, Bethany, Abigail report genuine friendships formed.
Session quality	STRONG. 5 of 10 praised live sessions (Erica, Zachariah, Esther, Bethany, Salomon). Sessions seen as best element.	VERY STRONG. Overall sessions avg 9.62/10. All 8 rated 8 or higher. Aleksandra lowest at 8.
Session depth / time	PROBLEM. 4 of 10 said sessions too short (Erica, Filipe, Esther, Elizabeth). Not enough time for depth.	STILL A CONCERN. 4 of 8 said intensive too packed/intense (Erica, Abigail, Aleksandra, Esther). Breaks rated 8.25 (Erica: 4, Bethany: 6).
Online prep sessions	MIXED. Valued when materials came early. 2 noted last-minute delivery (Erica, Esther). No numeric score available.	WEAKEST DIMENSION. Avg 7.38/10 — lowest of all rated items. Armando 5/10, Erica 6/10. Armando: 'too basic, presenters not as good as offline'.
Pre/post work accountability	DROPPED OFF. 3 said it weakened: Bethany ('gotten a little lost'), Sammie ('many emails, hard to keep in mind'), Nachi ('didn't engage with pods').	180-DAY PLAN UNREVIEWED. Esther (NYU) + 1 anon (short survey) said coaches never reviewed their plan. Accountability issue persists in different form.
Speaker quality	PRAISED. 3 of 10 specifically praised speakers: Erica, Esther, Elizabeth. Others mentioned positively in context.	VERY HIGHLY PRAISED. Bethany, Erica, Nina cited speakers staying engaged post-intensive. No negative ratings on sessions overall.
Advisor network	NOT INTEGRATED. 1 fellow (Bethany) explicitly raised this: 'introduced halfway through; leads to less use; introduce with 1:1s from start'.	Not specifically re-raised in NYU or short survey. Not re-raised in later responses , given strong peer bonds formed.
Content relevance / stage fit	CONCERN FOR 3. Elizabeth (too founder-focused), Armando (too early-stage), Filipe (insufficient depth for their level).	Not re-raised explicitly. Armando scored online prep 5/10 with same concern. Nachi noted in midpoint that AmaliTech team is farther along.
AI & technology content	2 of 10 wanted more: Filipe Garcia, Armando Hernández. Also 2 of 10 cited AI in NYU wants (Erica, Esther).	5 of 8 praised AI session (Lindy). Armando wants more masterclasses. Aleksandra wants AI risk/ethics discussion. Erica wants AI through equity lens.
Overall satisfaction	No numeric end-score collected. Qualitative signals mixed — some very positive, some notable concerns.	9 of 11 'very satisfied'. Avg NPS 9.55. 7 of 11 said transformative impact on abilities. only one fellow rated with NPS 7
